

SUPA Constitution

Definitions & Rules:

- 1) SUPA – Shanghai Ultimate Players Association
- 2) Member of SUPA (Eligible to vote) – Member of SFRC (Shanghai Football and Rugby Club) with “Frisbee” as the indicated sport, or member of at least one SUPA league in the past 12 months. Must also be a current resident of Shanghai with the intention of remaining in Shanghai in the near future.
- 3) Amendments to this Constitution must be ratified by a 2/3 vote of SUPA

1: Introduction

Two committees will govern SUPA: an Executive Committee and a Players Committee. Committees will have differing responsibilities and will be charged with leading SUPA. Committee decisions shall be reached by consensus among committee members.

2: Executive Committee responsibilities will include but not be limited to:

- 2.1 marketing of SUPA
- 2.2 communications (within SUPA and between other organizations such as SFRC)
- 2.3 treasury
- 2.4 elections
- 2.5 coordinating tournaments and leagues (working with players committee)
- 2.6 holding at least bimonthly general SUPA Meetings where all SUPA members are invited to attend

3: Players Committee responsibilities will include but not be limited to:

- 3.1 developing new members of SUPA, with an emphasis on local players
- 3.2 providing opportunities for more advanced players to improve skills
- 3.3 coordinating tournaments and leagues (working with executive committee)
- 3.4 providing a format for team selection (league and tournament)

4: Committee makeup and creation

- 4.1 Executive committee will have three members divided in the following way
 - A) President – Also SUPA representative to SFC (must attend bimonthly meeting), and member of players committee
 - B) Vice President – In charge of marketing of SUPA to Shanghai and the International Ultimate community, and in charge of communication amongst all SUPA members
 - C) Treasurer – In charge of all SUPA finances including issuing annual reports detailing SUPA income and expenses, and responsible for annual elections
- 4.2 Players committee will be made up of five members, one of whom is the president of the Executive committee. Responsibilities are detailed in 3.1-3.4
- 4.3 Potential Committee members must be nominated by a member of SUPA
- 4.4 Once nominations are complete, a vote will be taken
- 4.4 Terms will run for approximately 1 year